

An All-Consuming Fire (The Monastery Murders Book 5)

A Christmas wedding in a monastery what could be more idyllic? And Felicity has never been happier, in spite of her over-bearing mother who wants to turn the whole event into a royal affair and Antonys worries over the television series he is narrating on the English Mystics. Then Felicity takes on responsibility for directing an Epiphany pageant for Kirkthorpes wayward youth. At least, most of the vexing disruptions occurring on the filming locations are miles away from the Community of the Transfiguration. Until the threats move closer. Close enough to threaten Felicitys life. Will the murderer stalking the Yorkshire Moors shatter the joy of Felicity and Antonys Christmas wedding?
