Sometimes, you just don't want to do something. But you have to, or perhaps you want to, but you don't really feel like it. Worse yet, you may feel that inertia just sucking the life out of you, making matters worse. And then you may cope with that unpleasant feeling by getting sidetracked with distracting procrastination activities. So what to do? You can't always rely on desire to magically kick in and propel you into productive effort. Further, you may have a habit of avoiding things that you are not otherwise forced to do. Like most of us, if you don't have external pressure and potential penalties spurring you on, it can be tough to get yourself to take actions now and get things done. With this book Time To Get Things Done, you will be able to do things faster, better, and more easily. Whether you're facing down a deadline or just trying not to waste too much time getting something done, a little extra attention and willpower will help you get through your tasks quickly and master your life better.
