

Conscious Creation

One of Hollywood's most beloved actresses, Dee Wallace shares her amazing journey to healing and happiness in her groundbreaking work, Conscious Creation. Best known for her role as the mother in E.T.: The Extraterrestrial, Wallace relates her inspiring story of finding the path back home. We are all creating. Every thought, belief and action is a creation, but most of us are not creating consciously. From the commercials of disease and remedies that we are inundated with to conversations of lack and fear we have over coffee, most of us are unconsciously focusing our energy to create the very things we don't want. When we say, I am _____, it directs the Universe to create that statement. It is time we became victors, not victims. Conscious Creation is easy: When we consciously choose to love ourselves, live in love, celebrate our power, demonstrate our abundance, and contribute positively to the Creative Force, there is nothing we cannot experience as joy and success. We are created magnificent. Choose to know that. Choose to be conscious of creating your life. Choose. Love. Demonstrate. Celebrate. You are here to be happy.
