

Discrete Liaisons (BDSM HuCow Erotica)

The search for sexual fulfillment can lead a woman to strange places... As Leena's 30th birthday arrived, she wondered if her most adventurous days were behind her. But as soon as her birthday arrived, an entirely new world of kink and fetish opened up to her, as she strangely began producing cream so rich and profuse that she has to pump every single hour. Little did Leena know such a thing could be such an immense turnon... After re-learning her body, she's shaken off her insecurities enough to allow a man to explore her body and go deeper with her in her newfound fetish. Leena logs on to the deep web, the secret portion of the internet, and finds out about the Cat House, an underworld mansion where your raunchiest dreams come true. Horny little Leena puts on a spandex catsuit and sneaks onto this property to open another chapter in her sex life, one which promises to leave her changed forever. Will she bite off more than she can chew or will she bask in the deliciousness of dreams fulfilled?

EXCERPT: The people on the message board urged me to only do the secret knock once and not to worry about whether or not they heard me. Don't think about whether or not they heard you. They did. This is a secret society so they're going to make you wait to prove you want in. Neel on the porch like a kitten in heat for as long as they make you. That's the message that an online user by the name of DairyNymph69 sent me when telling me about the Cat House. I knelt on all fours with my hot pussy pressed against the cold pavement and I had my back arched with my tongue out, purring and pawing against the door like a horny little kitten. I arched my back and shook my curvy ass at the surveillance camera that I caught a glimpse of earlier. For an entire mansion to be dedicated to fetish and kink, there are probably more cameras all around that I could ever imagine. I figured I'd give them a little show while I wait. I massaged my fingers along my round rump and pressed them along my fat tight little p-ssy, hoping that the camera could zoom in and see the imprint of my spandex to see how swollen it is. An animalistic urge swept through me and I left my thoughts and focused my attention on the sensations in my body. My lips and tongue kissed the door with eyes closed, as the filthiest thoughts permeated my imagination. My fingers massaged my swollen, throbbing entrance as waves of an icy hot chill burned up and down my spine. Just as I was getting into the passion of the moment, a voice from the other end of the door startled me. Whats the password? the voice asked. I sat up onto my knees, huffing and panting, trying to catch my breath and remember what DairyNymph69 had told me. Once refocused, I remembered the password. Dreams never die, I said, wincing and hoping that the password was correct. After a few moments of hesitation, the mail slot opened up and an object fell out, hitting the pavement porch with a heavy thud. I crawled over to the bowl and saw that it is a solid gold, diamond encrusted kitten milk bowl. I was told that this was part of the initiation process. I took the gold bowl and set it down properly. While on all fours, I reached into the cleavage of my cat suit and whipped out one of my throbbing, plump, suckable tits. My breasts are engorged and absolutely pulsating. My cream was dying to spring forth... I leaned my chest forward and bit my lip, wincing as I squeezed my breasts and deposited hot milk into the gold kitten bowl. The pitter-patter of my own breast milk squirting into the kitten bowl felt so erotic. I closed my eyes and pursed my lips in sweet relief as the tension in my engorged breasts began to alleviate with every bit of milk that squirts out. Once I had filled up the bowl, I slipped my naked breast back into my top and then slid the milk bowl into the mail slot. A se
